DAR Members Enjoy Interesting Meeting

Washburn Chapter of D.A.R. met with Mrs. Walter Ballard, Indianapolis Road, Tuesday evening, April 19. Mrs. William Boatright, Registrar, presided in the absence of the Regent, Mrs. Hugh Henry, who is attending the seventy-sixth Continental Congress of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, in Washington, D. C., April 17-21.

The Rev. Maxwell G. Webb, guest speaker, delighted the Chapter with his excellent slides in color and very interesting information concerning his recent work for Japanese protestant churches, and with observations in Japan of special interest for D.A.R. members.

Mrs. Floyd Yochum, Regent of Washburn Chapter for three years, and presently completing a three-year period as Indiana State D.A.R. Chairman of Conservation, was honored, at the March 29th meeting of the State Council in Indianapolis, in having a conservation scholarship named in her honor, The Beulah Yochum Conservation Scholarship. This honor is in recognition of her outstanding leadership and accomplishments as the State Chairman. DePauw University is the recipient of the scholarship. It will be granted to a selected teacher in this area for permanent materials of use in teaching conservation in High School. This is the second year DePauw has been so honored, due to Mrs. Yochum's wishes.

Mrs. Josef Sharp and Washburn Chapter have been honored by the NSDAR in recognition of the colored slides and narrative of Indiana State Parks for the Program Files of the National Society in Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp took the pictures for an illustrated program given by Mrs. Sharp in Washburn Chapter in 1966. She was invited to submit her outstanding materials to the Indiana State Program Chairman, who in turn recommended and submitted the slides and data to the National Chairman's consideration. This is the only conservation program to win a National Society D.A.R. award this year. Mrs. Sharp's high rating in the D.A.R. programs in the United States for 1966 is a very distinct honor to Mrs. Sharp. Washburn Chapter is the recipient of the award which will be used for a special project by the Chapter.

On May 16, the Central Meeting of Indiana D. A. R. Chapters will be held in the DePauw Memorial Student Union, beginning at 9 a. m. Each member is urged to attend the meeting and the luncheon. Reservations for the meal should be made with Mrs. Ira Moore before May 12. The May evening meeting of the Chapter is replaced by the District Meeting.

Mary C. Boswell Opens Shop At Bainbridge

Say Mom, do you need a new dress for your daughter's graduation? Do you have a daughter that is going to participate in a wedding during June, either as the bride or bridesmaid and needs a new dress? Or maybe dad has a suit that no longer fits since he has added an inch or two to his trim waistline. If so see M. C. Boswell at Bainbridge.

Mary Boswell has just opened a shop in her home at Bainbridge where she will be specializing in clothing alterations and dress making. After being in charge of the clothing alterations at Mac's Inc., in Greencastle for five years, Mary is well qualified to make your daughter's formal for the Junior and Senior Prom, or alter dad's suit as her expert fingers have been working with clothing since she was 15.

Since her shop is located in her home, she plans to do her work from 9:00 a. m. until 5:00 p. m., but Mary is quick to point out that she wanted it this way so she could be available to serve her customers anytime they wanted to call her. Her phone number is 522-3351.

Her new shop is located west of the four way stop signal in the middle of Bainbridge in the first house on the south side of the street in the third block.

Hints from Heloise

by HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise:

How does one take the scorch taste from vegetables that have slightly burned in the bottom of a pan?

Careless One

Pour the food into another pan, saving only those bits that fall out quickly. Fill the burned pan with water, set aside, and worry about it later!

Rinse off the food you transferred to the clean pan once or twice with cold running water. Barely cover with more fresh water.

Then add one beef bouillon cube and a pat of oleo, and cook a little more.

This is the only way I know of, and I use it every time I get careless . . .

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Whenever we play cards, I take a used Christmas (or any other occasion) card, turn it wrong side out, refold it, and have three sheets to keep score on.

Dear Heloise:

By tucking a favorite story book under our three-year-old's pillow at night, we've been sleeping from a half-hour to an longer every weekend morning! Books with lots of color and action win the most attention and keep him occupied longer after he awakes.

Sandy

Dear Heloise:

You know how bacon, especially the thin kind, sticks together and sometimes pulls apart when you try to separate it.

If you take the whole package (in the paper or cut of it) and roll it up from the end a time or two, the slices separate and do not pull apart.

If you do this when the package is new, the bacon stays separated until you use all of it.

Dossie Bean

Dear Heloise:

I have found an inexpensive and very attractive way to make cafe curtains.

I took a yard of nylon net and a yard of plain percale or sheeting and basted the net over the cotton material.

After hemming I did a decorative cross stitch on the border and had adorable curtains for my kitchen.

I now have pink ones in my girls' room and a pale yellow in my bath. They wash well and are an attractive addition to my apartment.

A Fan

Dear Heloise:

Saving the tops (usually made of soft cardboard or some similar material) from glass milk bottles delivered by the dairy can be helpful when leaving notes for the milkman if the weather is bad . . . just insert the note and re-cap the bottle.

Mrs. Raymond L. King

Dear Heloise:

When I wash my windows, I always wipe the outside of each one by going across—from side to side—and the inside going up and down.

If there are streaks, I know immediately which side of the window needs more wiping.

Loretta

Dear Heloise:

Galoshes slip over my suede shoes like magic when I slip the cut-off feet (three or four inches above the ankle) from old nylon stockings over them before putting the overshoes on.

Miss E. Elsbrunner

Dear Heloise:

When traveling with small children I keep one plastic bib (with pockets) in my purse, and a spare one in the suitcase. The bibs can be cleaned off fairly well with a moist towel-ette after eating in restaurants.

BACK FROM South Vietnam, young Pat Hogan explained his decoration for conspicuous bravery to his girl friend: "Just before we infiltrated into the jungle, General Westmoreland drove up in his jeep and shouted, 'Is Pat Hogan in this detachment?' I answered, 'Here I am, General.' 'Then what are we waiting for?' cried the General. 'Let the battle begin!'"

Man must continue his education or his mind will become stale and outdated. With this thought in mind, all County Extension Agents in Indiana have been going to school this past week at Purdue University. We must make a selection of two classes to take during the week. These classes are taught by specialists and professors of the university. Some of the available classes are on particular subject matter and others are designed to help us improve various skills.

The classes that I selected were Principles and Methods of Education, and Basic Extension Radio Seminar.

The Cooperative Extension Program is considered a method of informal education. Maybe you have not visualized our work as such, but our programs are designed to aid or teach people new techniques, practices or skills. This is done by farm visits, house calls, office visits, telephone conversation, meetings, newspaper articles, radio program, 4-H activities, etc. Hopefully, I will gain information which will help me do a better job of communicating.

The Putnam County 4-H and FFA Judging Teams did very well at the District Judging Contest at Terre Haute this last Saturday. The results were as follows: Livestock — North Putnam, 2nd; Greencastle, 6th. Dairy — North Putnam 1st and 8th. Crops — North Putnam, 1st, and Cloverdale, 8th. Insects — Reelsville, 1st. Forestry — Jackson Twp. & Reelsville, 3rd. Jackson Twp., 4th. Putnam County received its share of the honors. This credit must go to the coaches, Harold Doremire, North Putnam; Gene Akers, Greencastle; Jim Wood, Jackson Twp.; Danny Parker, Cloverdale; and Bob England, Reelsville. Also, Ward Robertson, 4-H Leader in Floyd Twp., gave a lot of help to the Dairy Teams.

A 4-H electric workshop will be held Tuesday, April 25, 7:30 p.m. at the Greencastle High School Building. This meeting is for all 4-H members planning to take electricity and all 4-H Leaders. The program is designed to acquaint the members with project requirements and awards, suggestions, demonstrations and exhibits.

Instructors for the meeting will be Allan Ellison and Dottie Buechler of Public Service, Jim Knotts, Parke County REMC and Les Porter, Hendricks County REMC. Attention to all boys and girls interested in any form of painting. The Greencastle Art League has volunteered to help any boy or girl learn to paint. Anyone interested should come to the 4-H Building at the Fairgrounds on Saturday, April 22, 10:00 a.m. This will be the first meeting of a series of training sessions. There will be no charge.

Military Experts Look At Reds Strategy In Viet

WASHINGTON UPI—Johnson administration military experts, taking a long hard look at Communist strategy in Vietnam, have come up with some contradictory signs.

On one hand, it appears the Communists have largely given up hope of military victory and are mainly trying to prolong the war in the hope of outlasting the United States and gaining a favorable settlement.

But on the other hand, there are intelligence reports that some or all of three North Vietnamese divisions located along the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) might attempt a new military offensive in the northern provinces of South Vietnam.

Each of these possibilities was discussed by Adm. Ulysses S. G. Sharp, Commander of U.S. Forces in the Pacific, in a series of appearances in the last few days. Sharp came to Washington from his Honolulu headquarters for the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization military advisers' meeting last week.

At a news conference Monday, Sharp said: "There are indications he (the communists) may try an offensive in the northern provinces of South Vietnam. If he does, he faces certain defeat."

Sharp said the deployment of North Vietnamese divisions in and just north of the DMZ might be designed to pin U.S. forces down in defensive positions, or might signal an actual attack.

Because of this possibility the U.S. Army's 196th Light Infantry Brigade and units of the 1st Air Cavalry Division have moved north into I Corps to free Marine units to guard the DMZ.

Despite the movement of additional Army units into the area, the Marine Corps still wants about another division to maintain security and proceed with pacification programs in the five northern provinces.

It is possible that as time goes on the Army will take over some of the southern portion of I Corps area, leaving the Marines to operate farther north.

Sharp told the House Foreign Affairs Committee that while U.S. units mounted attacks against the enemy, "the enemy can disengage many of these units almost at will by returning to his sanctuaries beyond South Vietnamese borders where our ground forces cannot search him out, thus placing the ground war to his advantage."

Officials said it may be that the Communists will pursue both strategies at once, playing their waiting game throughout most of South Vietnam while mounting some attacks in the northern provinces as a show of strength.

The communists are in a somewhat better position in the northern provinces because their supply lines there are shorter.

Stalin's Daughter Coming To U.S.

ZURICH UPI — Svetlana Stalina, only daughter of the late Soviet dictator Josef Stalin, left Zurich today for New York aboard a Swissair jetliner. She had been denied political asylum in the United States after defecting from Russia.

The Swiss police and justice ministry said it would have an announcement later today regarding the end of Svetlana's six-week stay in Switzerland.

The 42-year-old sole surviving child of Stalin decided not to return to the Soviet Union while on a visit to India last winter. She came here after Washington—at least for the moment—denied her wish to live in America.

Svetlana left aboard a jetliner due to arrive in New York at 3:50 p.m. EST.

Svetlana was protected from the press by federal police and foreign ministry officials during her six weeks in Switzerland at an undisclosed location.

The Swiss treated her as a "tourist," not a refugee. She never asked for political asylum in Switzerland, only for a three-month tourist visa.

Although she never spoke with newsmen in Switzerland, there were reports from other countries she had had contacts with publishing houses regarding her memoirs, a work Kremlinologists believe may be the most definitive account yet of the inner workings of Stalin's regime and the circumstances of his death.

Will Continue Sale Of Gold

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Undersecretary of Treasury Joseph W. Barr said Thursday night the United States will not stop selling gold to foreign governments.

He said the U.S. will not change its policy of allowing other governments to cash in dollars for U.S. gold at the rate of $35 an ounce.

However, Barr told the Contemporary Club the United States would rather see countries with surplus dollars use them instead of hoard them or cash them in for gold.

Barr said wealthy nations should import more, increase foreign aid programs, bear a greater share of Western defense spending, and open their capital to foreign borrowers.

Louisville Has More Violence

LOUISVILLE, Ky. UPI — More than 1,000 angry white hecklers, target of tear gas grenades for a third straight night, overturned a vacant police car Thursday night and threw "cherry bombs," rocks and bottles at police while some 75 housing demonstrators were being arrested.

Some 100 persons in all were taken into custody during the demonstration in the all-white Beechmont section of the city. The demonstrators were charged with violating a court order against nighttime demonstrations.

Among those arrested as hecklers were two members of the American Nazi party who were charged with distributing hate literature.

Shortly after the demonstration ended, three civil rights leaders, including the Rev. A. D. Williams King, brother of Dr. Martin Luther King, were arrested at a bail bondsman's office.

They were charged with disorderly conduct and loitering.

King and several other leaders of the movement for open housing legislation are to appear in circuit court today to answer contempt of court charges arising from their marches in defiance of the court order.

Following his arrest Thursday night, King threatened "if this sick attitude is not corrected, I'm afraid Louisville is headed for something it doesn't realize — a very hot summer."

Pig Is Elected Queen Of Prom

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. UPI — Paula Pigg may never be a GI pinup in Vietnam. But, for a day, she was the toast of the boys at Middle Tennessee State University.

And were the coeds mad. Paula, who is exactly what her last name implies, defeated seven coeds in campus balloting for queen of the senior prom.

Student leaders, discouraged over apathy in the contest, entered the hamster as a write-in candidate and promoted her with the slogan: "Girls are pretty, Girls are sweet, But Paula Pigg has two more feet."

Paula won by a 7 to 1 majority and the other contestants withdrew in a huff.

School Walkout In Washington

WASHINGTON UPI — Catholic University of America, its academic programs paralyzed by a strike of students and teachers, was reported near a decision today on the fate of a young theology professor whose firing touched off the revolt.

A university spokesman said the school's board of trustees probably would act soon to reinstate Fr. Charles E. Curran, 33, who has advocated liberalization of the church's stand on birth control. He was fired Monday.

One influential trustee, Lawrence Cardinal Sheen, archbishop of Baltimore, issued a statement from Rome urging that Curran be "restored to his former status."

Unless Curran is reinstated, student leaders said a mass march would be staged today or Saturday on the office of the University's chancellor, the Most Rev. Patrick A. O'Boyle, archbishop of Washington.

Meantime, the classroom boycott continued into its second day.

On Thursday, as nearly 3,000 students were demonstrating outside the meeting room, the university's faculty voted 400 to 18 to stay out of their classrooms until Curran was rehired.

Communist Chinese Army is in 'Effective Control of Country'

HONG KONG UPI — The Communist Chinese army "is now in effective control of most of the country," including the strategically-vital provinces bordering Russia, a report by Western diplomatic sources said.

"For the moment the army provides the only intact and viable administrative chain in perhaps most provinces," the report said.

The army control in the provinces "appears to extend downwards to the county level," the report added. Below that, the militia operates under the army's guiding hand.

The report by European sources was based on information gleaned from official and unofficial material from Red China and on information from travelers.

About 100,000 supporters of Mao Tse-tung mustered in Peking Stadium today to celebrate the formation of a pro-Mao administration for the capital city.

The rally denounced President Liu Shao-chi, chairman Mao's chief rival in the nation's power battle, and claimed the new regime meant the end of the political road for Liu. There was no indication Liu was out, however.

Neither Liu nor Mao was present. Peking Radio, reporting the rally, said Premier Chou En-lai and Mme. Chiang Ching, Mao's wife, headed the prominent officials assembled.

The report on the army, a pivotal element in the leadership crisis, said there appeared to be varying degrees of control and divided the provinces into several categories:

- Those "under direct military rule."
- Those where "power seizures" by Mao's supporters have been confirmed and where the military is "prominent" in the power organs.
- Those under "indirect military control."
- Those where the situation is "unclear."

The report said provinces under direct military rule "include the broad belt of strategically vital border provinces of Sinkiang, Tibet, Inner Mongolia and Tsinghai."

According to the report, the areas under "indirect military control" appear to be Hunan, Kiangsi, Kirin, Kwangsi, Yunnan and Szechuan provinces.

The report said the army was seemingly in control in the provinces where Peking had confirmed power seizures — Heilungkiang, Kweichow, Shansi and Shantung.

This left Fukien Province in a category by itself.

"Fukien, as befits the crucial border area facing Taiwan, is unmistakably under military rule with the army deputy chief of staff, Han Hsien-chu, the most important figure," the report said.

Frankfort Hosts Church Seminar

Sheldon D. Hurley, presiding minister of the Greencastle Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced today the cancellation of all weekend services usually conducted at the Kingdom Hall because most of the local ministers will be in attendance at the forthcoming Christian seminar scheduled for the National Guard Armory in Frankfort, April 21-23.

The three-day assembly of ministers is expected to attract between 800-900 delegates from Greencastle and fourteen other Indiana cities. Frank Spacil, district supervisor from Brooklyn, New York, will open the session on the convention theme, "Supply to Your Faith Endurance," Friday at 7:00 p. m.

Mr. Spacil will preside over a model ministry school at 7:15 p. m. the same evening. "It is this school that has helped to increase the efficiency of Jehovah's Witnesses in their ministry," Mr. Hurley stated.

On Saturday Mr. Spacil will conduct baptism services for new ministers at 1:30 p. m. Another highlight will be his Saturday evening program at 7:00 p. m., "Examining Our Ministry." This will be followed by a symposium on the subject, "Adding to Our Faith Endurance."

Climax of the assembly will be on Sunday at 3:00 p. m. when Spacil narrates a 90 minute film "God Cannot Lie."

LBJ Asks For Political Talks

BONN UPI—President Johnson has asked for political talks with the West German government when he comes here next week for the funeral of former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer it was announced today.

A government spokesman said Chancellor Kurt George Kiesinger welcomed the proposal and that arrangements for the talks were being worked out.

British Prime Minister Harold Wilson, French President Charles de Gaulle and other Western leaders also will attend the funeral.

State Secretary Karl-Guenther Von Hase said the only joint meetings of all the heads of state and government chiefs coming here will be at official ceremonies connected with the funeral and possibly at a luncheon given by President Heinrich Lübke.

But he said a number of bilateral talks will be conducted by the German government with the visitors.

50,000 Rubber Workers Strike

AKRON, Ohio UPI—Nearly 50,000 workers across the nation were idled today in a strike by the United Rubber Workers against three major rubber firms.

The strikes were called at midnight Thursday against B. F. Goodrich, Uniroyal and Firestone after negotiations failed to produce contract agreements.

In negotiations with Good-year in Cincinnati, the union agreed to continue working on a day-to-day basis.

Negotiations were to resume there at 10 a. m. EST today.

Truck Driver Is Traffic Victim

A panel truck hit an ancient iron bridge over the El River near Logansport today, sending a 125-foot section plunging into the stream and killing the driver who became Indiana's 320th traffic fatality of 1967.

The death toll compared with 422 a year ago.

Robert Todd, 32, Logansport, was killed when the truck rammed the bridge, which previously was scheduled to be replaced because of its age and condition, on a Cass County road northeast of Logansport. The truck also plunged into the river. Todd's body was recovered and a medical examination revealed death was due to a broken neck.

Mrs. Nellie Fox, 36, Austin, died Thursday in Robert Long Hospital at Indianapolis from injuries suffered last Monday in a collision of three cars on U. S. 31 near Crothersville in which Mrs. Marie Turner, 28, Austin, was killed outright.

Horticultural Tips

LAFAYETTE — Home gardening — from growing radishes to grapes — is covered in a 15-page publication from Indiana Cooperative Extension at Purdue University.

It's called the "Home Gardener's Guide," HO-32, and is free to Indiana residents from their county Extension office. Both vegetable gardens and fruit gardens are covered. Topics include planning, planting and care. There is a garden plan and a planting guide showing distance between rows, when to plant and how much to plant.

The section on fruit gardens includes topics on strawberries, raspberries and grapes. Other material includes a list of related Purdue publications which can provide additional details on garden subjects.

Teachers Organize

The teachers of the Cloverdale Community Schools met on April 19 to consider a proposal of organizing a Classroom Teachers Association.

After a period of discussion, a motion was made and adopted that an association be formed which would be affiliated with the Indiana State Teacher's Association.

Ronald Purcell was elected chairman of the organization until September.

A questionnaire was developed and distributed to the members of the faculty which listed some of the suggestions that were to be presented to the Board of Trustees.

Many countries are discovering that national parks are lucrative resources, the National Geographic says. In Kenya, for instance, tourists attracted by lions, elephants and other big game spend about $25 million a year. Annual park maintenance costs only $420,000.

Thoughtful Play Needed Against Tight Defense
By Alfred Sheinwold

When your opponents are tight defenders you must sometimes make very thoughtful plays. The brainwork may not be needed against the average taxpayer, but it will work just as well.

When today's hand was played a few weeks ago in the annual Intercollegiate Bridge Championships, West led the ten of clubs. South invariably won with the ace of clubs, and most declarers shot back the queen of hearts.

The average East took the ace of hearts and returned a low diamond. This rode to West's king, and a diamond return forced out the ace. Now South led a heart, finessing with dummy's ten.

East could cash the ten of diamonds, but then South had the rest.

In a few cases South went down because East defended like a bridge player. East simply refused to take the ace of hearts when South led the queen of hearts at the second trick.

EIGHT TRICKS

Now South had eight tricks, but tight defense would prevent him from getting a ninth. South was unable to set up and cash dummy's hearts, and a sensible East would avoid giving declarer a second diamond trick.

South should make the contract even against tight defense by making his heart plays in the reverse order. He should lead the low heart first, trying a finesse with dummy's ten.

If East takes the first heart with the jack, South can later overtake the queen of hearts with dummy's king. This sets up the suit while the king of spades remains as an entry. If East refuses the first heart, declarer leads a low heart from dummy and thus makes sure at once of two heart tricks.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with 1-NT (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes. You hold: S-K 6 5; H-K 10 9 8 7; D-J 8; C-5 3 2. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two hearts. The hand is not quite strong enough for game unless partner has a good heart fit and at least 17 points. If he has such a hand, he will raise to three hearts; and if he doesn't have such a hand you are content to play the hand at two hearts.

Hal Greer Leads 76ers to Third Win in NBA Championship Playoff

SAN FRANCISCO UPI—The Philadelphia 76ers, a superior blend of finesse and muscle, today needed only one more victory over the San Francisco Warriors to clinch the National Basketball Association title. The titans of the Eastern Division will go after it at home.

Hal Greer, one of the league's most fantastic shooters when it comes to hooping the 25-footers, wrecked the Warriors with 38 points Thursday night to help grind out a 122-108 victory and give Philadelphia a 3-1 bulge in the best-of-seven game series.

The clubs meet again Sunday afternoon at Philadelphia's Convention Hall where the 76ers grabbed a quick 2-0 lead in the playoffs before bowing to San Francisco, 130-124, at the Cow Palace Tuesday.

But coach Alex Hannum of the 76ers, and he ought to know, went on record as expecting a rough tussle this Sunday before a national TV audience.

"The Warriors will be tough," said Hannum, who was fired as San Francisco's coach after last season then latched on to one of the great teams in pro cage history.

"I've got a feeling that everyone knows it's not over." A crowd of 15,117—the largest ever to see a basketball game in the area—jammed the Cow Palace Thursday night to see if the Warriors could even the series. But the fans wound up marvelling at Greer's marksmanship which was all the more amazing as he had clicked for only two free throws and no fielders in the first quarter. Then the slick guard bucketed 11 straight points in the second period as Philadelphia administered an 18-2 "shock treatment" from which the Warriors never recovered.

Rick Barry, the Warriors' and the league's scoring ace, paced all the shooters with 43 points.

San Francisco actually led only once during the contest and that was 8-6 while the crowd was still being seated.

Nolan Hurls Cincinnati to Win Over Dodgers in 13

The Dodgers sure know how to hurt a guy.

But they couldn't break him.

Gary Nolan, who was pitching high school ball a year ago, came within one out of whitewashing the National League champions at Los Angeles Thursday night when a pinch-double by Jim Hickman drove Jim Lefebvre with the run that tied the score at 1-1.

Nolan wasn't around when the game finally ended in the 13th inning, but his Cincinnati teammates came through with a 3-1 victory. Although the decision won't appear in his records, Nolan earned a lot more than can be shown in the win column.

"This was my biggest thrill in baseball," said the powerful 6-foot, 3-inch 190-pounder.

"I just wish I could've got that last man out," he continued. "I was sure trying and I was praying I could come through. I pray all the time and I hope God lets me play 20 years in the big leagues."

Nolan gave up eight hits but struck out 12 batters, twice fanning the side. Dodger manager

Walter Alton said after the game that Nolan "was faster than Ken Holtzman of Chicago Cubs and is a coming youngster."

In the National League day games, the San Francisco Giants handed St. Louis its first loss of the season, beating the Cardinals 7-5, and the New York Mets trimmed the Cubs 6-1.

American League activity saw Chicago beat Washington 8-4, Detroit edged California 4-3 and Cleveland shut out Kansas City 2-0. Baltimore at Minnesota was postponed because of rain.

Vada Pinson and Pete Rose drove in the winning runs for Cincinnati in the 13th inning with singles and reliever Gerry Arrigo limited Los Angeles to one hit over the final four innings to gain his first victory. The Reds had scored their first run in the fifth on Lee May's double-Cincinnati's first hit off Bob Miller—an infield out and Leo Cardenas' single.

The Giants, with Willie Mays back in the lineup, snapped a six-game losing streak while halting a six-game winning skunk of the Cards. Mays, who had been sidelined for five games with a pulled muscle, got the Giants started on a five-run second-inning rally.

Tito Fuentes drove in three runs for the Giants and Lou Brock collected his sixth homer of the season. Bob Bolin gained credit for the triumph.

Rookie righthander Tom Seaver, with eight-inning relief from Don Shaw, gained his first major league victory for the Mets. The score was tied 1-1 when Ken Boyer put the Mets ahead for good with a sixth-inning single. New York added three more runs in the eighth, two coming across on a base-loaded single by Bud Harrelson.

Greencastle High School's golf team crushed Garfield, 14 1/2 to 1/2 on the Windy Hill Golf Course. Garfield was never in the match as the Tiger Cubs dominated each contest. Rob Lyon was the medalist of the day as he returned to form and shot a fine 77. Clark Finkbner, improving each time out, shot an excellent 80. Tiger Intra-Squad Game Saturday

The DePauw Tigers will be showing off a variety of new innovations Saturday morning when the Old Golds and the Tigers tee off against each other in the first full fledged intra-squad football scrimmage at 10:00 a.m. in Blackstock Stadium. One of the new innovations will be the use of television equipment to tape the scrimmage for replay as a study aid for coaches and players. A new formation which is expected to put some scoring power in the Tiger offense will be unveiled along with some exciting new speedy and shifty backs and ends. The Tiger coaching staff has concentrated on offense this spring, especially the offensive line. Daily personnel changes have been made in the search for a line that can give the backs some running room.

The scrimmage is open to the public.

ASPHALT PAVED Driveways and Parking Lots

TV in review

(By BICK DU BROW)

HOLLYWOOD UPI—In this television season so dominated by old movies in prime time, two families that were shrewdly ballyhooed as "blockbuster" specials ranked higher than all the others, according to the national ratings.

Far and away the most-watched video picture of the season was "The Bridge on the River Kwai," a film about World War II which was presented by ABC-TV and starred William Holden and Sir Alec Guinness.

Next came another "blockbuster" offering by ABC-TV, "The Robe," a Biblical tale that was seen on Easter Sunday and headlined Richard Burton.

Third among the season's televised motion pictures—and the highest-rated of those seen in regular "movie night" slots—was "Lilies of the Field," in which Sidney Poitier won his Oscar as a wandering ex-G.I. who helps a group of German nuns in the Arizona desert.

Fourth was an unheralded drama entitled "Five Branded Women."

Fifth was "PT109" the film based on the book about the World War Naval exploits of John F. Kennedy, who was portrayed in the movie by Cliff Robertson.

Tied for sixth were two of the so-called "original" films turned out for NBC-TV in hopes of counteracting the increasing shortage of old movies.

One of these projects was "The Domsday Flight," in which Edmond O'Brien portrayed a warped fellow who planted a bomb on a commercial airliner.

The other was "The Longest Hundred Miles," another tale set in wartime.

Eighth among the movies in television's "Top 10" for the season was "Blue Hawaii," An Elvis Presley epic.

Ninth was another of NBC-TV's "originals," this one entitled "Fame is the Name of the Game," and featuring Anthony Franciosa as a whiz of a magazine writer who gets involved in a murder mystery.

Numerous viewers in the home audience wrote in to note correctly that this production was actually very similar to an old Alan Ladd film called "Chicago Deadline."

Tied for 10th place in the charmed circle were a Jerry Lewis comedy, "Delicate Delinquent," and another unheralded drama, "A Summer Place."

Television, as you can see, is better than ever.

17 Indicted By U.S. Grand Jury

INDIANAPOLIS UPI—U.S. Attorney Richard Stein announced Wednesday that 17 persons were indicted in 16 cases by a federal grand jury.

Among them was Roger "Ted" Botnick, Charlestown, Mass., who was indicted on a charge of fraud by wire in connection with the alleged sale of machinery to an Indianapolis firm which was paid for but never delivered. He was arrested on the charge recently in Boston.

Also indicted was Thomas Vela, 21, East Chicago, on a charge of failure to report for civilian work at Marion County General Hospital Oct. 3 as ordered, after he avoided military service by filing as a conscientious objector.

Floyd A. Damme, Henderson, Ky., was indicted on a charge of illegal possession of $500 and a postal key.

U. S. Ready For A-Ban Discussion With Russia

WASHINGTON UPI—The United States Thursday told Russia it is ready to discuss the possible presentation of a joint draft treaty to ban the spread of nuclear weapons to the upcoming Geneva disarmament conference.

Officials said this word was sent to Moscow after Thursday's Paris meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) at which U. S. disarmament director William C. Foster discussed the proposed treaty with members of the Western alliance.

The Geneva conference reconvenes May 9.

Foster will be in Geneva this weekend. U. S. officials said they hoped a meeting with the Russians could be arranged, but that it was not yet known whether a Soviet representative would be there.

UAW Delegates Support Reuther

DETROIT UPI—Delegates to the United Auto Workers Union convention today prepared to adopt UAW President Walter P. Reuther's 1967 contract aims keyed to a "substantial" wage increase and a guaranteed annual income with salaries replacing hourly pay.

Discussions among the 3,000 delegates at the opening business session Thursday clearly showed that Reuther had gauged their mood correctly when he specified that a wage increase for all workers would be the top priority item.

There was grumbling from a few quarters that Reuther listed the guaranteed income so high in priority, but none on the issue of a substantial cash hike.

Two other top issues outlined by Reuther to the delegates were pay hikes for Canadian auto plant workers to bring their incomes up to that of their U. S. counterparts, and special increases for skilled trades workers to bring their rates up to a level enjoyed by similar workers in other industries.

The delegates discussed the economic gains section of the contract proposals at the afternoon session Thursday. Next to wage increases, the most important issue in the minds of many was a demand for job protection by regulation of subcontracting of work by the auto companies.

In his keynote speech to the delegates, Reuther said the union would demand a big money package of contract improvement regardless of the sagging profits the companies registered in the first quarter of 1967.

Washington said Foster had received approval to go ahead and try to work out a draft with the Russians, but did not secure endorsement by NATO members of any specific wording.

They made it clear the United States had avoided pressing for a showdown because it was aware that some countries, including Italy and Germany, still had reservations about signing a treaty in the form envisaged by the United States.

Germany, Italy and some non-NATO nations are reluctant to sign a treaty pledging to forego any attempt to make nuclear weapons or secure them from other nations unless it specifically allows them to secure nuclear knowhow for peaceful uses.

There also is concern by some countries that proposed provisions for inspection of peaceful nuclear installations might leave their industry open to "industrial espionage."

Italian Steel Duties Face Hike

WASHINGTON UPI—The Treasury Department is expected to raise duties on steel imports from Italy. Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., reported Thursday.

He said it is anticipated the department on Friday will impose countervailing duties of $22.40 per long ton, or $20 per 2,000-pound ton, on tower steel produced in Italy and used here for high rise and office buildings and highway overpasses.

Under U.S. tariff laws, countervailing duties are levied in a dollar amount equal to the subsidy of the foreign governments exporting to this country.

Hartke has been a sharp critic of the steel imports which last year totaled 10.7 million tons and have captured more than 10 per cent of the U.S. market. He praised the Treasury order.

"It is clear warning that the United States will no longer tolerate the dumping of under-priced foreign steel in this market," he said.

"Imported steel mill products enjoy an unfair advantage through varying systems of tax rebates, favorable central bank interest rates for export, high depreciation allowances and . . . outright subsidies by governments anxious to keep their labor employed at the expense of U.S. labor."

Short Trip By Flying Saucer

DAVIS, Calif. UPI—A flying saucer designed by a University of California professor lifted off the ground Thursday for five minutes of wobbly flight.

The test hop of the blue and white craft painstakingly built by Paul Moller hovered at an altitude of about three feet over the flight apron at the Davis University Airport, whirling around in circles.

After five minutes, however, the craft blew a radiator hose and Moller was forced to cut short the saucer's first public flight.

The 30-year-old professor appeared pleased with the showing of his 14 foot diameter saucer which climaxed five and one half years of work.

The saucer is not intended for outer space travel. It's the aviator's Volkswagen.
